

ACPINS

automated computer program identification number system

OKLAHOMA CITY AIR LOGISTICS CENTER

TEAM TINKER

U.S. AIR FORCE

User Account Redesign 17 March 2004

Janice McGill
OC-ALC/LGLUC
DSN 336-2227
janice.mcgill@tinker.af.
mil

Integrity - Service - Excellence

Purpose

To inform you of the upcoming changes
Regarding the “User Account Redesign”

Overview

- Background
- Requirements
- Approval process
- Benefits
- Summary

Background

- Need to simplify user accounts
- User feedback
 - Field users
 - DBAs
 - DPRs
- Requirements identified

Requirements

- 1. Login request - Forms and Reports
- 2. System Login - Account locked
- 3. System Login - Password expired
- 4. Password expiration notification
- 5. Login Problems
- 6. Disclaimer statement - New User
- 7. New User request process/screens
- 8. Delete Account
- 9. Login Administration date

Requirements

- 10.Login Administration data
- 11.User Administration
- 12.User Administration History
- 13.User Account Information update screen
- 14.Delete routing and organization routing
- 15.Remove accounts inactive in excess of 180 days
- 16.Add Signature/Name Blocks; MDBA view all user accounts; Contractor expiration date

Approval Process

- 16 Requirements were developed and validated
- Coordinated with Managing Centers and LGLUC April 2003
- Requirements Document finalized May 2003
- Programming scheduled to start mid April 2004
- Estimated completion - End of June 2004

Benefits

- Enhance system access to all screens
- Streamline processes
- System more user friendly

Summary

- Working together we made some valuable improvements
- ACPINS is all about helping the warfighter obtain mission critical software
- This enhancement will go a long way in achieving this goal

TEAM TINKER

U.S. AIR FORCE
